Interdisciplinarity in Scencie: Theory and Practice

Lisboa, 25 de Janeiro de 2015

Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa
Sala 6.2.45 | 10h00-13h00

The OECD conference on Interdisciplinarity (ID) in France 1970 defined ID “[...] as interaction among disciplines that may range from simple communication of ideas to mutual integration of organizing concepts, methodology, procedures, epistemology, terminology, data, and the organization of research and education.” (Julie Thompson Klein) This workshop is designed to investigate some of ID's impact on Theory and Practice in contemporary Science.
